The Election of Shands, in Southampton, Created No Surprise

JUDGE MANN, ELECTED

The Defeats His Independent Opponent for the Senate-A Combination of Hot Day and Water Melon Proved Irrisistible-Only Surviving Member of Confederate Cabinot-7 he Cuban Situation.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

Richmond, Nov. 8.-The Democrati of Richmond are rejoicing at the good showing made yesterday in many places, although there are disasters to deplore. The election of William Shands to the Senatte in Isle of Wight county has created no special surprise. It is regarded here as one of those periodical uprisings of the people on account of local causes, which party regularity is powerless to check.

JUDGE MANN ELECTED.

The returns received indicate the election of Judge Mann to the Senate by 400 majority. He carries Nottoway by between 1,700 and 1,800. Only about fifty votes were cast for E. P. Buford In that county. Blacks, as well as In that county. Blacks, as well as whites, voted for Mann. Brunswick gives Buford nearly 1,200, and he has carried Lunenburg by a small majority, while Buford got a tremendous majority in his home county. Dr. R. S. Nowell, the Independent for the House, bulled through with only 185. Price, bulled through with only 185. Price, the regular Democratic nominee, is a cousin of Buford's, and this may account for the discrepancy in the votes between the two Independents.

AN IRRESISTIBLE COMBINATION.

For some years Mr. Reagan has been the only surviving member of the Confederate Cabinet, and has been the guest of the city before this time. Mr. Reagan was in closest personal relation with President Davis during the war, and after the evacuation of Richmond accompanied Mr. Davis to Danville and afterward to Georgia, when he was made acting Secretary of the Treasury. He was the last Cabinet official to leave the President and remained with him after the bureaus of the various departments had been abandoned.

Mr. Reagan was tired from his long

THE CUBAN SITUATION.

General Fitzhugh Lee will remain in the city until Friday. He will appear in the parade to-morrow, and will go from Richmond to Staunton to see his daughter, who is in school there, and will then go to Washington for a stay of several days.

"The Cuban situation is growing bright and clearer every day. The United States authorities are doing much toward the establishment of a stable government there, and are merting with considerable success. HAMPTON.

FALL ELECTION—NEW TRIAL FOR BURGE.

Hampton, Va., Nov. 8 .- The election which took place in Elizabeth City county yesterday was the quietest ever held, and the vote was the smallest ever polled in an election, the total vote cast at the four precincts being the ridiculously low number of 344. The dullness of the day was in evidence at each precinct and the few voters who presented themselves to the judges came one at a time.

came one at a time.

In Hampton, which usually polled 500 votes, the vote was only $6, and the day was marked by the quietness. The courthouse had on its Sunday appearance, and the time dragged along in such a manner as to almost cause the judges to go into innocuous desuetude, so to speak. By 6 o'clock the vote had been counted, and the results were given the few bystanders without even the slightest demonstration.

en the few bystanders without even the slightest demonstration.
Phoebus, the home of Hon. L. G. Donohoe, the legislative candidate, polled the largest vote, but, considering the fact that she generally comes up with 600 and 800 the 150 ballots cast yesterday were only a drop in the barrel.

At Fox Hill the total vote was 33, which is about one-third its usual numbr.

At Slash, when the last man had voted, the register showed 65 names, when in the spring election this precinct gave a total vote of 850.

The little interest shown in the election is easily accounted for, which was due to Mr. Donohoe having no opposition, and Mr. Tyler practically the same, his colored opponent only receiving 24 votes in the county.

NEW TRIAL FOR BURGE.

County Court opened its November term this morning with Judge Baker P. Lee on the bench. The grand jury was at once empanelled and has been in session the entire day. They will probably report their findings late this afternoon.

afternoon.

Judge Lee shortly after court opened rendered his decision in the matter of granting William D. Burge, who was convicted and given ten years in the penitentiary at the July term of the County Court on the charge of assaulting his 17-year-old daughter, Addie Burge. The new trial was allowed on the ground that the main witness for the Commonwealth was compelled by illness to leave the stand before the atorneys for the defense had had the proper time in which to examine her. When Judge Lee had rendered his decision Burge's attorneys, Messrs, Causey, Jones and Woodward, who cision Burge's attorneys, M Causey, Jones and Woodward, Causey, Jones and Woodward, who have made an excellent fight for their client, asked for ball, which was allowed. It is understood on good authority that Miss Addle Burge, the young girl upon whom the assault is alleged to have been committed, has left the county and will not appear against her father at the new trial.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

Suffolk, Va., Nov. 8.-Later return practically verify the figures given in to-day's Virginian-Pilot concerning the election in the Thirty-second Senatorial District. Semi-official returns from thirty-three out of thirty-four pre cincts in the district give Shands 935 plurality. The remaining precinct may change the total to some extent, but not materially. The official count comes to-morrow.

Myrtle, which had not been heard from last night, went for Boykin by 102. Boykin's majority in Nansemond will be about 650.

MAJORITIES REDUCED.

The returns from two unreported precincts in Isle of Wight reduce Boykin's lead to 90. That's what I was told by Smithfield to-night. Baker's store went for Boykin, but the vote was more than balanced by Shands' majority at Mt. Carmel. Jones (Dem.), leads Dr. Bradshaw (Ind. Dem.), by 110. Jones ran twenty votes ahead of Boykin.

SAYS 'TWAS FAIR.

Chairman Parker says the election in Southampton was absolutely fair—as fair as any election ever held. He estimates that 350 colored persons voted, and that most of them voted for Shands.

The colored people who voted in Nansemond are estimated at 650.

Nansemond are estimated at 650.

Mr. Shands said to-night that the biggest surprise he met was at Cypress Chapel, where he got 2 out of 94 votes. Mr. Shands was in a fine humor with himself and everybody else. He says, despite the warm fight just over, he bears malice towards none. He still has a few persons' names marked on his memory book, but he's not mad.

The Phoenix Military Band, under Prof. H. A. Miller's direction, serenaded the Senator-elect about 9:30 o'clock at the Commercial Hotel. Mr. Shands made a speech. He was applauded warmly by a large crowd. Afterwards he said something else.
